

WRECKING TRAIN IS ITSELF WRECKED

Smash-Up of Unusual Character
Occurs on Southern Near Birmingham.

TWO DEAD, OTHERS INJURED

Only One Passenger Hurt,
Though Escape of Others Is Miraculous Apparently.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., April 21.—As the result of a triple wreck on the Southern Railway a short distance east of Woodlawn, a suburb of Birmingham, early today, two men are dead and a number injured.

The dead: Cal. B. Harris, fireman on wrecker; Tom Bell, brakeman on wrecker.

Injured: James Wages, Atlanta, engineer, skull fractured, head hurt and face scratched; S. P. Hill, engineer, internal injuries; Thomas Powell, engineer, bruises on body; white fireman, shoulder dislocated; two postal clerks, slightly injured; white passenger, knee cut.

The unusual character of the wreck makes it surprising that the casualties were not more.

A freight train with a dead engine on the rear was coming toward Birmingham. The operator, it is said, allowed No. 37, the fast train, to enter the block, and it crashed into the dead engine, smashing them both and demolishing several cars. Three cars of the freight train were thrown across the eastbound track almost at the instant that the Southern wrecker, en route to Pollin, passed. The wreckers struck them, and practically the whole train piled into the ditch. Two men were caught under the engine.

The passenger train, with cars of the passenger train were torn up, and the three demolished engines, with the debris, strewn about, presented a gruesome picture.

NOTABLE TRIBUTE TO DR. HAWTHORNE

Leading Baptist Paper Contains
Sketch of Widely-Known

Richmond Minister.

In a recent issue of The Standard, one of the leading Baptist weeklies in the United States, Dr. Henry T. Henry, pastor at Williams and Mary College, pays a notable tribute to Rev. Dr. J. B. Hawthorne, of this city. Accompanying the article is a picture of the Richmond minister.

After giving a brief but comprehensive sketch of the life of Dr. Hawthorne, indicating his great success as a pastor, Mr. Louthan has the following to say concerning his gifts as an orator:

"He has a magnificent physique and stands six feet four inches in height. This gives him a commanding presence and secures attention before he utters a word. I heard him preach the annual sermon before the Southern Baptist Convention in 1895 at Washington. His address was 'The Return of the Son of Man.' He was the greatest speaker of America, but none has come since. His words were like the words of a prophet. His imagination, move the feelings and give a powerful impulse to the will."

"Dr. Hawthorne is as great on the platform as in the pulpit. He has spoken often in many parts of the country. He has an address upon 'The World's Great Orators,' among whom he should be included. His address delivered before the Boston Social Union on October 19, 1898, he declared that whether the United States or the Union flag of the Union did or did not contemplate such a result, the truth is that the triumph which they achieved brought to the world the light of a deliverance immeasurably greater than that which came to the enslaved negroes. The slave system of labor brought every neighborhood into a diversity of industries. But, he continued, now our mountains are giving up their coal, iron, marble and minerals of every kind; every neighborhood is making use of her exhaustless supplies of water-power; the people are dotting with sails and steamers the waters of the sea; and our element of wealth and progress is at our doors."

The Southern Baptist Convention will meet in Richmond this year on Dr. Hawthorne's seventieth birthday. He will address the convention that day upon "Some things which it behooves the Baptists of this generation to put supreme emphasis on."

On account of ill health he has recently resigned his church in Richmond, the resignation to take effect July 1st. Ere long he will have to Virginia's blue mountains, which have been his summer home for almost a score of years. Thousands are hoping that health will soon again be flourishing, and that for many years he will be spared to our Southland, which loves him so well."

Daughters in forwarding the erection of the D. A. R. building on Jamestown Island.

The building is a reproduction of the historic building at Jamestown, Va., and is a masterpiece of Colonial architecture. All modern conveniences have been added, and genuine Colonial furniture, the gift of the Virginia Daughters, will be installed. The St. Louis chapter also contributed $25 toward the furnishings.

Friday, June 7th, was set aside as the date for the formal presentation of the building to the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, its future custodians.

Mrs. Purcell also reported success in collecting Revolutionary relics for the building at an antiques exposition. These include a tent used through the war as Washington's headquarters; Washington's sword, Jefferson's chair and the desk at which he wrote the Declaration of Independence. Kennedy's desk, at which he drafted the Virginia Bill of Rights.

From the floor of the House it was reported that Commonwealth Chapter No. 1 of Richmond had contributed $500 for the building on Jamestown Island.

THOUSANDS ENJOY FINE SPRING DAY

Streets and Parks Filled With People Yesterday—Many See
Ruins at Idlewood.

Ideal spring weather drew thousands of people out of doors yesterday, and from church time in the morning to dark, when the air began to grow cooler, the popular streets were alive with people, many of them on their way to or from the city and suburban parks. Congregations at the churches were generally reported to be large. Following the morning service the parade up Franklin and Grace Streets was begun. It was the first real display of the Easter fling, so long kept back by bad weather. The scene along these streets was notable. The early afternoon found the parks thronged with people, the greatest crowd of all congregating at Reservoir Park, where the ruins left by the Idlewood fire proved an irresistible attraction. The morning service was well attended, and the people could be seen during the afternoon, sunning themselves and incidentally admiring the new Stuart and Davis monuments now being completed in position. The day was one of the fairest and most enjoyable of the present year, and the relief from lowering skies aroused a general hope that the wintry days have at last given way to spring.

Grieg's Concerts in A Minor at Symphony Concert.

One of the numbers selected for the symphony concert of the May festival of the Wednesday Club, Saturday, May 18, is Grieg's concert in A minor for piano and voice. It will be interpreted by Mme. Samarinoff. This composition was played at Leipzig in the Gewandhaus at a concert for the benefit of the orchestra pension fund, February 22, 1892. It was described as patchwork, as scraps of Schumann and Chopin "scandalized." The first performance in England was at the Crystal Palace. The concerto was played in Boston by Markovitch, at a symphony concert, October 28, 1894. It was played afterward by Mrs. Bloomfield-Ziesler, Messrs. Sherwood, S. Liebling, Rummel and Rupert (December 12, 1892) and others.

Grieg wrote the concerto after the first performance, and made important changes in the orchestration. When the work was first played in Boston the orchestration was considered radical and tumultuous. Even to-day there are various opinions concerning it. Ernest Closson, who wrote a biographical sketch of Grieg, reckons it among his most important works. At the same time, under the visible influence of Schumann, it remains exceedingly individual. Each figure, each phrase, the rounded and compact, the Demosthenian oratory should be as did James Boardman Hawthorne that day when he was picturing the purpose of the Christ.

CANADIAN RUGBY STARS MAY PLAY IN ENGLAND

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Hamilton Tigers, who won the Rugby championship of Canada last season, will be significantly honored if they win the championship a second time. A Rugby enthusiasm has been kindled in England, and the heroes by financing a tour of England, which will last several weeks, this fall. Should the team decide to go, it will not cost the players a cent. The tour will likely be undertaken even if the locals lose the championship, as the team will be paid for their services in the old country. He asks in return for his support that should the team be victorious, the players be given interest on his money.

Triumphal tours of England have been made by New Zealanders and other teams, and the Tigers would doubtless make an equal hit. The Tigers have not yet decided to accept the tour, but they are expected to do so, as proposed by the Montreal club.
